

Andrew Sackmann

Junior Varsity Offensive Line

Coach Sackmann will be in his fourth year coaching the JV Offensive line. After playing four years for Coach Kramer and his staff, he graduated from Naples High School in 2006. Shortly after graduating, he went on to Mount Ida College in Boston, Massachusetts where he would start all ten games at left tackle for the Mustangs. In the same year he achieved the academic honor of being named to the Dean's list. Since then he has moved back to Naples and is majoring in secondary biology at Edison State College.
