

Mark Swanson

Varsity Special Teams Coordinator
Head Junior Varsity Coach

Coach Swanson is entering his eighth year as a member of the Naples High School football coaching staff. Mark is the Special Teams Coordinator for the Varsity and Head JV Coach. The Naples JV has compiled a 45-3 record with 4 undefeated seasons over the last six years under Coach Swanson, while the Varsity Special Teams set a record for most points scored in 2007. Prior to his tenure at Naples High, Mark coached quarterbacks and was the offensive coordinator at Columbus High School in Miami for 12 years. During that time, Columbus had 66 Division I players and won 5 district titles. Mark moved to Naples in 1995 to be the head football coach at Lely High School. During his 5 years as the head coach for the Trojans, they shared two district titles and had 3 state playoff births. Mark and his wife Mary Ann have three children; Christine 24, a Naples High and Duquesne University graduate with a masters in Forensic Science. She is now employed by the US Army in their crime lab. Jack 22, also a Naples High graduate, currently Red shirt junior defensive back at the University of Iowa, and Maggie 18, a senior at Naples High School.
